From Father Brian's Desk

Lent is here!

Now that we have begun the season of Lent, I would just like to remind everyone of a few presentations that we offer during this time.

First of all, we will celebrate 7:30 a.m. Daily Morning Mass in the Church due to the number of people that attend during the season of Lent. If your schedule allows you to, please join us once or twice a week for the Sacrament of the Eucharist. It's a great way to begin the day!

We will continue the tradition of offering the Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings during Lent at 7:00 p.m.. The Stations of the Cross prayer service offers the opportunity to walk in the footsteps of Jesus on his final hours before his death on the cross.

The St. Alphonsus Parish Lenten Project that Doreen Dabney is coordinating this year is the Backpacks of Support. The backpacks will be given to help those who need some assistance in their journey at the moment. We will be asking parishioners to assist those in the Lemont area, including children in financial need, senior citizens and those who attend the P.A.D.S. homeless shelter.

Joe Martorano and the St. Alphonsus Parish Choir will be hosting an Evening Vespers Service on Sunday, Feb. 22nd at 4:00 p.m. in the Church. It will be a combination of Scripture readings, prayer, and musical pieces that will prepare us to celebrate this season of reflection. Please join us for an evening of contemplation and prayer.

FR. BRIAN ARDAGH

Jesus was tempted by the Satan and the angels ministered to him.

— Mark 1:12-15

Welcome Guests and Visitors . . . We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this way, we believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

I suspect that the real reason we avoid the desert is because in all that monotony there are no hiding places, no paths to crawl our way behind some kind of hill, no busyness that allows us to duck beneath the rippling surface of honesty, no phone calls to undo the silence that echoes our real selves. Curious that we should be afraid of the nothing rather than of the something. Yet it is the nothing, in the end, that makes the revelation happen. Such is the unsettling power of any desert, to reveal what we most fear in life, the real self that is perhaps less known and more imposing than anyone else's self. Deserts do that, and so we avoid them like kids dancing about their homework.

Over the years we learn that it's safer to fritter about on the fringe of Lent than to get lost in its vast and desert emptiness. We've grown good at frittering, at tinkering with days stripped of television or meals that have surrendered their dessert. This frittering goes on simply because when it's all over and done we are able to go back to the lives we've come to enjoy and treasure and nothing has been redone, least of all our real selves.

Jesus, however, risked the desert. Never just a tinkerer, he dared to trek about the emptiness for forty days and nights. This week's first scripture is a piece from Noah's tale in the bobbing ark. Thus we might wonder which desert was more daunting, forty days and nights of Noah's deluge or of Jesus' drought. Yet both found themselves in new and different worlds, neither of which had ever before been mapped.

THE MEANING OF OUR BAPTISM

Lent is the time of year that we devote to scrutinizing our lives in the light of our baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus. Today's readings are a nice shorthand catechism of what our baptized lives mean. As Noah passed through the waters of the flood to a covenant with God, so did we enter into a covenant, a promised relationship with God through our baptism. The psalm reminds us that if we truly keep the covenant, the way of life God expects us to follow will not be a burden, but a source of love and truth. Peter's letter gives one explanation of what our baptism means: it is an appeal that we make to God for a clear conscience. How do we obtain this clear conscience?

The words that Jesus proclaims immediately following his temptation show us the way: "Repent and believe in the gospel." It might be a good spiritual exercise to keep these readings before us throughout the entire season of Lent, a means to help us return to a life lived in our baptismal promises.

MEET A NEW CATECHIST

Kelly Hurley has been looking for a way to give back to the Church, and she feels lucky to have a brother who has been a catechist in our program who offered a way as his aide in the Monday 7th Grade group. Kelly also feels fortunate to be able to help young people to learn and grow in their faith ... while at the same time, learning a lot herself too!

CONFIRMATION PENITENTIAL RITE

As our confirmandi continue their journey in preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation, they pause during this season of Lent to recognize the presence of evil in the world and in their lives.

Their faith community will pray over them during the 9:00 and 11:00 Masses that they may be protected from evil.

FORGIVENESS IN THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

We hear a lot about repentance and forgiveness during Lent. Few topics are more important, and as challenging as forgiveness in maintaining healthy relationships and peace in the home.

How can we as parents, help to highlight the ways that we are called to forgive as God has forgiven us? Kathy & Mitch Finley advise that when a hurt happens we can do more than “Say, you’re sorry.” These incidents become teachable moments. We can ask the kids involved to sit down and, after a few minutes of reflection, state what they did and ask for and receive forgiveness. Say “please forgive me” and “I forgive you” (rather than saying, “that’s okay”).

This kind of exchange is based on skills that help form healthy consciences in our children. Other important skills that we should be mindful of developing in our children are the process of reparation, a firm purpose of amendment, and loving the sinner, not the sin. If a child makes a mess, he or she has to clean it up. If he steals something from the store, he has to work toward paying back the price of the item. There must be a willingness to improve a pattern of behavior, otherwise the request for forgiveness is hollow. This is how we can help our children form good moral habits. Our children must understand that our discipline is because of love, and that we fully accept them.

In addition to helping our children learn how to forgive, it is essential that we apologize to them, when appropriate, so that they have the experience of granting forgiveness. When a child’s actions are not loving and caring, we can seize that moment to help the child better appreciate the sacrament of Reconciliation and God’s forgiving love.

Spelling Bee 2015

In preparation for the Regional Spelling Competition, twenty five of the best spellers of St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School participated in our school spelling bee on Monday, January 26. Cheered on by their classmates, the students from grades 4-8 who won their classroom competitions did their best to spell some very challenging words in the all school Spelling Bee! Participants from Grade 4 included Christian, Annalise, Connor, Frank and Caleb. The Fifth grade spellers were Bianca, Logan, Vince, Alex, and Matthew. From sixth grade, the challengers were Jack G., Michael V., Cydney, Paige, and Connor K. The seventh grade super spellers included Carson, Maryann, William, Conor, and Jennye. Eighth grade competitors were Ethan, Marissa, Natalia, Emma and Michael.

Every one of these students showed poise and spelling prowess as they stepped up to the microphone to spell a number of very difficult words. New in this year's competition were two vocabulary rounds, where students needed to know the meaning of the word given.

The third place finisher was Ethan L. from the 8th grade. Fourth grader Caleb came in second place after some fast paced rounds with the final bee champion, Michael Y. from the 8th grade. Michael correctly spelled all of his words through many rounds, and he was also successful during the two vocabulary rounds. His last word in the competition with Caleb was "nourish" and then his championship word was "magician". We are proud to have Michael represent our school at the Regional Spelling Bee.

The seminar can be taken while awaiting the birth of your child or shortly after the baby is born. The seminar will meet on a Saturday of alternate months from 9:00 am to Noon in the Religious Education Building. The Seminar dates for 2015 are: March 7, May 9, July 11, September 12, November 7.

Special Film Presentation:
The Francis Effect

In March of 2013, after only five ballots, the Cardinals elected the serene and unassuming Jorge Mario Bergoglio, Archbishop of Buenos Aires as the 266th Pope of the Catholic Church. He would be called Francis. From the moment Pope Francis appeared on the balcony of St. Peter’s Basilica, he won the hearts of the people. His humility, simplicity and closeness to the poor reveal a man deeply in touch with the Gospel. His profile has soared. He initiated fundamental reform of the Roman Curia, challenged a “globalization of indifference,” and has become the most talked about person in the world. On Tuesday, Feb. 24th, the Social Action Ministry of St. Elizabeth Seton Church (9300 W. 167th St., Orland Hills) invites you to a viewing of The Francis Effect (from Salt and Light Media). This film takes a critical and in-depth look at how an ancient institution is rapidly changing under the leadership and vision of Francis is having a profound effect on the world as well. There will be two viewings of The Francis Effect from 10-11:30am in the Parish Life Center and 7-8:30pm in the Church. Prayer, brief reflection and hospitality will be shared. Please join us. For more information please call 708-403-0101, x107.

Thank you for your continued support of our local food pantry. As part of a service project, the St. Al's Women's Club will be featuring a "product of the month".

This item will be a special request from the pantry for an item that is needed most. For March we will collect "beverages such as coffee, tea, hot cocoa and juice." Any item you are able to give is gratefully accepted. The staples you provide are also necessary. Your kindness and generosity are very much appreciated.

Are You Registered?

Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment in all its dimensions. It also brings many advantages, recognition and responsibility. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor.

Registering here is very simple. You can go to our web page, www.st-als.org, look under "Parish Registration," and fill out the needed information. You can come into the office and fill out a registration form. If your time is limited, you can take the form home and return it via the collection basket on Sundays or mail it to the office.

A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings. Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. We accept anyone who wants to share in the life of our parish regardless of where they live.

Remember that you need to be a registered parishioner to partake in all the services that St. Alphonsus offers. Why not sign up? You are surely welcome!

Income Tax Statements

Once again we will only send tax statements to those parishioner who request them, so if you need your statement for Income Tax purposes, please either fill out the form below and place it in the collection basket, mail it or bring it to the office, or you may also call the office.

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME
YEAR OF SACRAMENTS

Repair

In the Sacrament of Penance, the priest offers what is called a "penance," usually a prayer or action. It is nothing severe or difficult to do. But don't think that it is of little importance. In fact, it's very important.

The penance is a small way to begin to repair the damage of sin. We confess our sins, and we receive absolution, the forgiveness of those sins. Still, the residue or consequences of sin remain. If we have been unjust or unkind, we need to repair the damage. If we have succumbed to habits that diminish us, we need to repair the damage. If we have ignored the needs of others, we need to repair the damage. The penance reminds us that a converted and forgiven heart will claim responsibility and then move forward. The penance may be a short prayer or a small action, but do not underestimate its value.
