Pope Francis

Pope Francis continues to shake up the world (and the Church) with his decisions and I think a number of people are glad for it. The most recent decision about modifying the amount of time and price for annulments really has a focus on the pastoral side of the mission of the Church and how we are called to assist people dealing with difficult situations. When we receive more information about the changes in the Annulment process, we will share them with everyone. In the meantime, please pray for Pope Francis as he continues to share God's mission of mercy and love!

Religious Education News

Next weekend the Archdiocese of Chicago celebrates Catechetical Sunday and honors those who dedicate their time, patience and energy in our different parish programs. We will offer a prayer of thanks for those catechists in our Religious Education program, our SPRED (Special Religious Education) program and our R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) program. If you have ever had a desire to be a catechist in any of these areas, please don't hesitate to contact the Parish Office or the Religious Education Office.

On Saturday, September 19th, our Religious Education program will sponsor a Car Wash in the church parking lot from 12:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. to help with our Catechist Appreciation Fund. Please stop by if you would like to support our R.E. program and have a nice shiny car!

Fundraiser at Gelsosomo's Pizzeria

A few weeks ago, I mentioned in my Pastor Column that one of our local restaurants, Gelsosomo's Pizzeria (206 Main Street, Lemont, IL), sponsored a very successful fundraiser for St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick Catholic School. A number of parishioners mentioned to me that night that it was a great opportunity to come together as a community to support our school.

The owners of Gelsosomo's Pizzeria have invited us to join them in a new fundraiser for St. Alphonsus Church. If a St. Alphonsus parishioner attends the Sunday Brunch at Gelsosomo's Pizzeria and presents their parish bulletin, then Gelsosomo's will donate 20% of the total bill back to St. Alphonsus Church. The advertisement is in the back of the bulletin. So if you are looking for a great place to have a meal and in turn support St. Alphonsus Church, please consider this wonderful opportunity.

Peace,

FR. BRIAN ARDAGH

Welcome Guests and Visitors . . . We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this way, we believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

Going to the school of Jesus was not always easy for the disciples. Beginning with this event, Jesus begins to educate them about what it means to be his disciple. He starts with the basics: Who he is. Like a good teacher, he engages them in a discussion, asking two questions, going from the easier one to the more demanding one: Who do others say I am? Who do you say I am?

The first question gets a quick answer, but the second one gets only Peter's response. By saying "You are the Christ" (Mark 8:29), Peter was naming Jesus as the long-awaited Anointed One, the one who would come to restore Israel's political kingdom and overthrow the Romans. But this was not to be. Jesus counters Peter by speaking of himself as the Son of Man who must suffer, be rejected, be killed, and then rise after three days.

Peter is aghast at this and places himself in front of Jesus so that Jesus has to tell him to get behind him. Peter is blocking his way, like an obstacle, a stumbling block, an adversary (Satan), preventing Jesus from going in the direction he is heading. Peter had learned about a Messiah of power and prestige and Jesus was talking about a Man of pain and punishment. Peter wanted a political Messiah, not a suffering one. Peter saw the disciples taking part in the pomp and pageantry of a new age, and Jesus was speaking of denying oneself and picking up a cross.

But graduating from the school of Jesus means moving out of our comfort zone into a distressful district: a place where we take up the cross of self-denial and self-sacrifice. Of course, it all depends on how we answer his question: Who do you say that I am?

Living God's Word

We pray that we come to know who Jesus is and how he is calling us to enter into his ministry to bring life to our world.

We pray that we might better understand what we need to die to, so that God's reign might become more present in our world.

The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced.

— Isaiah 50:7

Jesus rebuked Peter: "Get behind me, Satan!"

SERVANT

Sometimes the hour and the person meet. Sometimes, when a task or mission is set upon our shoulders, we know we must meet our responsibilities and we are ready. These are heady and invigorating times. The first reading and the Gospel proclamation today are intimate glimpses of a commencement, an inauguration of a challenging future. In both readings, a sense of gravity prevails.

The first reading is from the mysterious Servant Songs from the book of Isaiah. The person is steadfast and brave. His courage and bravery are not located in his stout heart, but in God. We are reminded, "The Lord God opens my ear that I may hear" (Isaiah 50:4), so the servant understands the mission. And twice, "The Lord God is my help" (50:7, 9), so that the servant can endure the coming struggle.

Have you ever wondered what RCIA is all about? RCIA may be for you if:

- You were raised in another faith tradition, but are interested in learning if the Catholic Church is where you want to be.
- You are Catholic by baptism but have not completed your Sacraments.
- You have never been baptized and would like to be.

If any of these situations apply to you, why not look into whether RCIA is right for you? Call Linda at 630-257-2414 to find out.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 20TH

Catechetical Sunday is September 20, 2015. There will be a general blessing for all catechists from our Religious Education Program, SPRED, and St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School at all the Masses.

There will be a small reception for all catechists and their families after the 9:00 am Mass in the church hall for those who are able to attend. Please join us at any Mass to celebrate this special day.

Ministers of Care Needed

Some of our homebound parishioners receive the Eucharist during a weekly visit from a St. Alphonsus Minister of Care. However, some are missing out on the graces of the Eucharist because, due to age or chronic illness, they cannot get to church. Can you spare approximately thirty minutes a week to bring Communion to someone who is homebound? Your presence, prayer and support will bring comfort to those in much need of it. Training sessions will be held in September on Monday/ Wednesday evenings at St. Patricia's and on Wednesday mornings at St. Julie Billiart Parish. To register, or if you have questions, please call Linda at 630-257-2414.

Polka Mass at SS. Cyril & Methodius Parish! Saturday, September 19th, 5:30 PM

Join us to remember and pray for Fr. Marion Soprych on Saturday, September 19th at 5:30 PM. We will celebrate a Polka Mass in honor of Fr. Marion on the first anniversary of his death. Please mark your calendar and bring your friends along.

Are You Registered?

Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment in all its dimensions. It also brings many advantages, recognition and responsibility. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school registration, weddings, or when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor.

Registering here is very simple. You can go to our web page, www.st-als.org, look under "Parish Registration," and fill out the needed information. You can come into the office and fill out a registration form. If your time is limited, you can take the form home and return it via the collection basket on Sundays or mail it to the office.

A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings. Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. We accept anyone who wants to share in the life of our parish regardless of where they live.

Remember that you need to be a registered parishioner to partake in all the services that St. Alphonsus offers. Why not sign up? You are surely welcome!
