Tri-Parish Youth Ministry

One of the programs that the three Lemont Catholic parishes share is Youth Ministry. We have been blessed with inspirational Youth Ministers in the past and they have guided our young people along a vital part of their lives. We are happy to announce that Tim Callahan has volunteered to revive our Tri-Parish Youth Program. Tim is very excited about this opportunity and he is looking forward to sharing the Gospel message with our young people. Here is a short biography from Tim:

My name is Tim Callahan and I have been a parishioner of St. Pat's for about four years. Before that, I was a parishioner of St. Fabian's Parish. My wife, Lynn (Goralski), and I grew up in the Marquette Park area of Chicago where we both attended Queen of the Universe grammar school. Thereafter, I attended Brother Rice High School and she attended Maria High School. We married at the age of 21 and 22 and have been best friends all of our lives. We were blessed with one child, Meghan, who is living in Plainfield, Illinois. Lynn became sick in October of 2011, and our lives were changed forever as we both were drawn very close to our Lord in our life's journey.

I have been extremely blessed in my lifetime and have enjoyed a variety of careers. I was commissioned in the U.S. Army after my graduation from Western Illinois University. I served 3 years on active duty and 22 years in the United States Army Reserves retiring as a Lieutenant Colonel in 2004. I joined the Bridgeview Police Department in 1984 and retired as the Chief of Police in 2009. I am currently working as an attorney for the Village of Hodgkins and as a hobby I instruct karate at the Lemont Park District.

Well, enough about me and my blessings -- it is now time for me to serve our Lord by preparing our children to enter a world that can be filled with extreme joy while also filled with moral challenges and sorrows that can be weathered if we have a strong relationship with our Lord.

I intend my ministry to be responsive to desires of our children, parish elders and our pastors. Both Lynn and I were blessed to have been raised in strong religious families. Our faith filled roots have allowed us to see beyond the trees of this world and somewhat understand our purpose here on earth, which is to serve our Lord and others. I welcome this challenge and ask for your prayers for Lynn and me, and may God continue to bless us, our families and our faith communities.

FR. BRIAN ARDAGH

Welcome Guests and Visitors . . . We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this way, we believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

We've all done it—passed street people without seeming to see, hear, or smell them sitting on the sidewalk begging. I usually encounter them when I'm dressed up to go to the theater or on vacation in a strange city. I'm slightly out of my comfort zone. I might catch sight of their shoeless feet or sunglasses or hear the thin request, "Spare change?" Immediately my guard goes up and I pretend not to notice their existence, let alone their need. Chances are they aren't really blind anyway and they'd probably just spend the money on liquor.

The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens. Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same?

—Virginia Stillwell

Living God's Word

Panhandlers are utterly dependent on charity for their daily bread.

They have nothing of real value, so they have nothing to lose.

Might our self-sufficiency, self-defensiveness, and self-importance blind us to something that their poverty reveals?

Like Bartimaeus, we must depend utterly on Jesus for mercy, vision, direction, and daily bread.

TRUE BLINDNESS

Bartimaeus caused a stir. Normally he sat by the side of the road being a "good blind beggar." But one day Jesus passed nearby. Bartimaeus jumped up and called out to Jesus. We can imagine him turning toward the direction of the commotion and noise. Bartimaeus probably had his arms outstretched as he shouted out to the son of David.

The people who knew him were embarrassed by his outburst. They tried to hush him up and get him to sit back down by the roadside. Their actions spoke volumes: "Bartimaeus, you're not fit for Jesus." But it was okay for them and other "sighted" people to follow Jesus. In today's readings, we learn that true blindness is not a condition of our eyes but of our hearts.

FALL FAMILY SESSIONS NEXT WEEK FOR GRADES 4 & 5

The sessions will take place in the classrooms on Track A, and in the Church Hall on Track C. Parents join their children for the lesson, discussion, and activities. October is the month for the Rosary, and we focus on the Rosary in 5th Grade, so our first session will be with 4th and 5th Grades who will make their own rosaries as they learn more about it.

INTERESTING THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT HALLOWEEN

- Halloween is celebrated on October 31. Not all cultures celebrate Halloween.
- By the 7th century (we are now in the 21st century), November 1st became known to Christians as "All Saints Day." On All Saints Day, Christians gave special honor to those followers of Jesus who had died. All Saints Day is a time to remember that nothing—not even death!—can separate us from God's love.
- In the northern hemisphere, celebrating All Saints Day (Nov. 1) in the fall is a great way to celebrate life, because this can be a time of year that feels "dark," or maybe sad. Why does it feel sad? Maybe because the days grow shorter and cooler and because the harvest season is ending. Some trees are losing their leaves, and the landscape can take on a "shivery" or "spooky" feeling.
- The word "Halloween" comes from "Hallows Eve." Before people used the words "All Saints Day," they used the phrase "All Hallows Day" to speak about the same thing. To "hallow" something is to honor it, to consider it holy. (You might know the word "hallowed" from the Lord's Prayer, where we say, "Hallowed be thy name...") On "Hallows Eve" (October 31) people would get ready for All Hallows Day or All Saints Day on November 1.
- There are many different explanations for some of the Halloween traditions we know today. Many of the traditions are tied to the beliefs and practices of the Celtic people in ancient Europe. The Celts (pronounced "Kelts") viewed October 31 as their New Year's Eve, and believed that spirits from the dead roamed the earth on that night. (Maybe now you see why some people dress up as ghosts today!) Some people would leave food ("treats") for the spirits. Some people dressed up in strange costumes to try to confuse the spirits.
- Your family or some of your friends may celebrate another holiday that occurs at this time of year, called "Day of the Dead." Its roots are in the country of Mexico. Day of the Dead is celebrated on November 1 and 2. On these days people remember those who have died by creating altars (or "offerings") that contain mementos from the person's life, as well as a variety of special foods and flowers. To learn more about Day of the Dead, look at this YouTube video from the Travel Channel: Day of the Dead.

ENTHUSIASM IS IN THE AIR!

It has been good to see smiling returning and new faces over our first 2 sessions... kids & catechists. There is an enthusiasm that makes the sessions enjoyable!

St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School Celtic Golf Tournament

Thank you to our school families, friends and parishioners who came out for a fun day of golf and dinner at the Celtic Open Golf Tournament, all the while supporting our school. Our profit for this fun event was approximately $6100. This wouldn't have been possible without the enthusiasm and commitment to our school from the planning committee: Mike Bruno, Bob Parry and Mark Mars. (Mike and Bob happen to be the husbands of two of our teachers. When you are a part of the school Celtic family everyone gets involved.) Thank you to these fine men for making this event a reality. It is safe to say that some of us will never make it on the pro golf circuit. We were out for fun. As we say, "It's all for the kids."

However, there were many golfers who just might make the pro circuit. I think with their commitment to using our golf tournament each year as a way to hone their skills in preparation for their pro debut we will be able to say: "We knew them when." Thank you to Dave Calhoun and Bill Kerfin for their donations to our outing. We give a shout out to Chick-fil-A for donating lunch as we geared up to take our place on the course. We are grateful to our sponsors: Jane Doyle, event sponsor, and McGuire and Sons and Michael Paul Photography for being Gold Sponsors. A special thank you to all the teachers and staff who generously volunteered their time for registration, hole-in-one hole, spotters on the 18th hole and setting up the banquet room.

I am grateful for you, the parishioners and your friends, who joined us for this outing. It is so good to know that even though your school is "over the bridge" you support us in so many ways. Thank you to everyone who made this event a huge success. Our students are fortunate to have such caring and generous people supporting them in their academic endeavors.

We will soon let you know the date of our next golf outing so you can mark your calendars for a day of fun.

Mr. K. shared his expertise by reading to our younger students, making important phone calls to both parishes, monitoring a physical education class and supervising the lunchroom. Observing Mr. K. using his administrative skills, I think it is safe to say he could seriously consider the educational administration profession. The chance to become the principal for a day is just one of the opportunities that is made available for bidding at the annual Gala. Get ready to bid on this great gift for a child at this year's Gala, A Night in Oz, on February 27, 2016 at the Chicago Marriott Southwest in Burr Ridge.

PRINCIPAL FOR THE DAY

Fifth grade student Frank K. had the privilege of becoming Principal for a Day thanks to a generous gift by his parents who won it at last year's Gala. Frank did a great job serving as Principal for a Day and carried out his duties with aplomb!

Memorial Mass

Monday,
November 2, 2015

Each year St. Alphonsus celebrates a Memorial Mass on All Souls Day. This year the Mass will be at 7:00 pm. We remember, by name, all those who have been buried from this parish in the past year. We would also like to remember, by name, those who have died in the past year who are special to our parish families.

If you would like someone remembered at this Mass, please call or email the church office with your name, the name of the deceased and their relationship to you. Included in this year's remembrance will be those who died between October 1, 2014 and September 30, 2015. We look forward to remembering your loved ones with you.

Marian Prayer Group

Would you like to spend some time with fellow parishioners in prayer to our Blessed Mother? Come join us on Thursday evenings during the month of October. We will meet in the chapel at 7 pm on October 29. We will pray the rosary, a devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help and other traditional Marian prayers. Let's give special honor to Mary, the Mother of God, during the month of the rosary.

Let's Fill the Shelves. . . . Food Pantry Update

Thank you for your continued support of our local food pantry. As part of a service project, the St. Al's Women's Club will be featuring a "product of the month". This item will be a special request from the pantry for an item that is needed most. For November we will collect "baking products such as flour, sugar, cake mixes, frosting, etc." Any item you are able to give is gratefully accepted. The staples you provide are also necessary. Your kindness and generosity are very much appreciated.

In The Hospital?

Due to the implemented government regulations in all hospitals, parishes will NOT be informed of any parishioner's hospitalization NOR will that information be available to any visiting clergy and/or parish visitor. It is strictly your responsibility to let us know of your hospitalization. A hospital can notify us only if you specifically request this at the time of admission. We certainly want to continue praying for and supporting those who are ill. Please don't feel it is a bother to inform us.

You are important to us.

Providing Relief to Families Fleeing Conflict

Catholic Relief Services is working with Church partners in Greece, Albania, Macedonia and Serbia to provide immediate assistance, including food, water, sanitation, medical care, legal services and trauma counseling. CRS and partners will adapt programming to meet the rapidly changing needs on the ground, remaining faithful to our principles to support those in greatest need, regardless of national, religious and ideological beliefs.

As the Syrian conflict enters its fifth year, a combination of desperation and hope is leading growing numbers of Syrians to attempt an extremely perilous journey toward Europe. Harrowing stories have emerged of death, starvation and abuse at the hands of people smugglers. In 2015 alone, some 2,000 Syrians have drowned in the Mediterranean in their attempt to reach Europe

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is working to provide immediate assistance to these migrants and refugees, and donations are requested to strengthen CRS's efforts

A second collection will be taken up this weekend, October 24th & 25th, at all the Masses to help the efforts of the CRS.
