The Journey of Advent

We are now entering the Third Sunday of Advent, "Gaudete Sunday" or "Rejoice Sunday". It reminds us that the joy of Christmas is only a short time away. However, even though Christmas is a tremendous celebration of our faith, some people have mentioned to me that they really appreciate that Advent offers a wonderful time of reflection through our waiting. Instead of rushing towards the Christmas celebration, we take a journey of contemplation and prayer.

While our American society pushes us to put up our Christmas tree and decorations immediately after Thanksgiving, the Catholic Church waits until the final weeks of Advent before decorating the church environment. While many people take down their Christmas decorations after New Year's Day (or even the day after Christmas), the actual Christmas season lasts until the middle of January with the Baptism of the Lord.

As we continue on the journey of Advent, here are some wonderful events that we can participate in:

Songs for the Seasons

I would like to remind everyone that our St. Alphonsus Music Ministry will present the "Songs for the Season" service on Sunday, Dec. 13th at 3:30 p.m. in the church. It is a beautiful service that combines Advent readings with Christmas songs that will truly inspire us to celebrate the seasons of Advent and Christmas. Please join us for a wonderful musical event!

Breakfast with Santa

One of the special Christmas traditions that St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School has sponsored is the annual Pancake Breakfast with Santa Claus. This year, the Breakfast with Santa is Sunday, Dec. 13th from 8:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. at St. Patrick Church. Children (and adults) will have the opportunity to have a photo taken with Santa Claus and there will be a Bake Sale, as well. Tickets are only $6 for adults and $5 for senior citizens and children 3-12 years old. Children under 2 years old are free. Come join us for a delicious breakfast and a fun-filled morning!

Tri-Parish Reconciliation Service

Our Lemont Tri-Parish Reconciliation Service will take place at Ss. Cyril & Methodius on Monday, Dec. 21st at 5:00 – 6:00 pm. and then 7:00 – 8:00 p.m. The sacrament of Reconciliation gives us a great opportunity to think about the mistakes we have made this year and how we can be spiritually cleansed as we enter the joyous season of Christmas.

Fr. Brian Ardagh

Welcome Guests and Visitors . . . We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this way, we believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

'Tis the season for bell choirs and brass renditions of beloved carols. Church musicians are rounding up trumpeters and French horn players to rehearse for Christmas liturgies. What would a Christmas television special be without pealing bells in the closing sequence? The joyful sounds of brass instruments herald the good news that the Lord of the universe has entered into human history once and forever in the poor infant Jesus.

There is another kind of bell that seems to follow us wherever we go at this time of year—the Salvation Army bells. They remind us that not everyone has experienced the good news of salvation yet. There are many who suffer while others wallow in abundance. Today's scriptures remind us that the Lord is with us to save us from our sinfulness, so that justice, love, and peace might reign at last in the world. Then all God's people will be able to rejoice.

Living God's Word

When we pray the Our Father at Mass the priest voices a prayer that asks the Lord to free our minds of worry as we look forward to Jesus' coming. Joyful hope gives us the spirit and the confidence to do all that we can, expecting that Christ's saving power will be present in our midst.

With joy you will draw water at the fountain of salvation.

—Isaiah 12:3

CELEBRATE

This Sunday, God rejoices and sings because of us. We read in Zephaniah today that God “will sing joyfully because of you, as one sings at festivals” (Zephaniah 3:18). We know plenty about singing at festivals. Already our ears are ringing with the songs and carols that anticipate the Christmas season.

Paul reminds us of the source of our own double rejoicing: God is the mighty savior who is in our midst (in Zephaniah's words). Because this is so, says Paul, we can rejoice and be at ease. We don't have to worry, for God's peace will stand guard over our hearts and minds.

A medieval carol depicts Christmas as “my dancing day” and urges us to enter into the dance. Why all the merrymaking? Because “the Lord is near,” as Paul reminds us (Philippians 4:5). He then points to another reason for the dancing: the dawn of the promise of peace, the peace beyond all understanding, that is now within our grasp.

Religious Education Update

LAST SESSIONS BEFORE THE BREAK!

After this week, our next sessions will be in 2016 during the week of Jan. 10th. Mid-term assessments will be taken this week, and progress reports will be handed out when we return from the break.

TOP 10 MISTAKES PARENTS OF TEENS MAKE

The Christmas season is one focused on family. Advent is a time where we are introspective. That introspection can include ways that we can improve as parents. The following are suggestions from a blog called Mere Disciple. I gave 7 the last 2 weeks, and will give the final 3 this week...

3. Outsourcing your teen's spiritual formation. I see parents assuming that they can completely outsource the spiritual development of their child to parishes and schools. As a parent, YOU are THE key spiritual role model and mentor for your teen. And that isn't "if you want to be" either—that's the way it is. Ultimately, you are charged with teaching and modelling to your teen what follow Jesus means, and while church, youth groups, Christian schools can be a support to that end, they are only that: support mechanisms.

2. Not expressing genuine love and like to your teen. It's sad that I have to write this one at all, but I'm convinced very few Christian parents actually express genuine love and "like" to their teen. It can become easy for parents to only see how their teen is irresponsible, failing, immature, etc., and become a harping voice instead of an encouraging, empowering one.

Do you intentionally set aside time to tell your teen how much you love and admire them? Do you write letters of encouragement to them? Do you have "date nights" where you spend time together and share with them the things you see in them that you are proud of?

Your teen won't ask you for it, so don't wait for an invitation. Every day say something encouraging to your teen that builds them up (they get enough criticism as it is!). Pray every day for them and ask God to help you become one of the core people in your teen's life that He uses to affirm them.

1. Expecting your teen to have a devotion to God that you are not cultivating within yourself.

When I talk to parents, it's obvious that they want their teen to have a thriving, dynamic, genuine, life-giving faith. What isn't so clear, however, is whether that parent has one themselves. When it comes to the Christian faith, most of the time what we learn is caught and not taught. This means that even if you have the "right answers" as a parent, if you're own spiritual walk with God is pathetic and stilted, your teen will unconsciously follow suit. While having a healthy and maturing discipleship walk as a parent does not guarantee your teen will follow in your footsteps, expecting your teen to have a maturing faith while you follow Jesus "from a distance" is an enormous mistake.

ST. NICHOLAS' VISIT

In anticipation of St. Nicholas's nightly visits, children in several European countries put their shoes in front of the fire place. They sing traditional songs and provide a carrot or hay for the horse. At night Black Pete puts gifts and candy in the shoes.

The legend grew from the many good deeds performed by St. Nicholas and being a friend to the poor and helpless. Upon his death in 342 A.D., myths soon sprang up about him all around the Mediterranean Sea. He was reputed to be able to calm the raging seas, rescue desperate sailors, help the poor and downtrodden, and save children.

On the Feast of St. Nicholas, Mrs. Kaye surprised her 5th Graders by asking them to take off a shoe and put them in the hallway. They learned about the St. Nicholas tradition and enjoyed discovering

ROCK AROUND THE BLOCK

Recently our drama club students performed the musical, Rock Around the Block, at Mt. Assisi Academy. The musical was performed under the direction of Mrs. Margie Novotny from Lucky Star Productions. A huge thank you to Mrs. RaeLyn Wall, Mrs. Jenna Treanor, Mr. Mike Bruno and Mr. Tim Wall and the many parents who gave countless hours assisting their children with their lines, songs and dances.

They also helped in so many ways in preparing for the musical. I would like to thank the Sisters at Mt. Assisi Academy and Carrie Peters for being so accommodating and helpful to us in our first production. Thank you to the many parishioners, friends and families who came out to watch and cheer our students on as they undertook this endeavor. It was wonderful to see the many hidden talents of our students.

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Father, Parish Staff and Parishioners,

Pope Francis declared that the Year of Consecrated Life be celebrated throughout the world from November 29, 2014, through February 2, 2016. During this special year for religious, please join me in supporting the upcoming appeal for the Retirement Fund for Religious. We have all witnessed the selfless dedication of religious serving in our parishes, schools, hospitals, and numerous areas of ministry during our lifetime. In our often troubled world, they remain a visible sign of Christ's love.

As I ask your support of this appeal, I invite you to think of it not only in terms of a matter of justice to care for their needs, but as an act of solidarity with them, letting them know that our appreciation for their witness is so strong that it prompts a desire to join them in their unique contribution to the life of the Church and society. The collection is scheduled to be taken at all Masses on December 12 and 13, 2015.

This letter gives me the opportunity to thank you for the many ways you as pastor and the parish staff witness to the Gospel by your service to the people under your pastoral care. Please express to your parish family my heartfelt best wishes.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago

Your gift provides vital support for senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious priests.
Thank you!
A second collection will be taken up this weekend, December 12th & 13th, at all the Masses.

STRENGTH AND COURAGE

A YEAR OF MERCY

Feed THE HUNGRY

In his compassionate mercy, God has fed us and sustained us. Every day, we pray: Give us this day our daily bread. We are grateful, and we want to share food with those who do not have enough. Jesus said, "I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, for they may faint on the way." (Matthew 15:32)

Jubilee Year of Mercy

December 13, 2015
 Third Sunday of Advent

Pope Francis chose to inaugurate the Jubilee Year of Mercy last Tuesday because December 8 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the closing of Vatican II. That council, Pope Francis reminds us, inaugurated a new phase in the Church's history. The Spirit called the Church to tear down the walls that for far too long had made it a fortress, and to proclaim the gospel in a new, more accessible way. Pope Francis quotes Saint John XXIII in declaring the Church's preference for "the medicine of mercy," and Blessed Paul VI in proposing the Good Samaritan as our model for discipleship (Misericordiae Vultus, 4). Pope Francis adds that God's mercy is "the beating heart of the Gospel," and that mercy "must penetrate the heart and mind" of every disciple (MV, 12). Three times today's Gospel asks, "What should I do?" Pope Francis would say: Imitate Jesus, who came not wielding the fiery judgment that John the Baptist had threatened, but instead imparting healing, compassion, forgiveness—mercy!
