From Father Brian's Desk

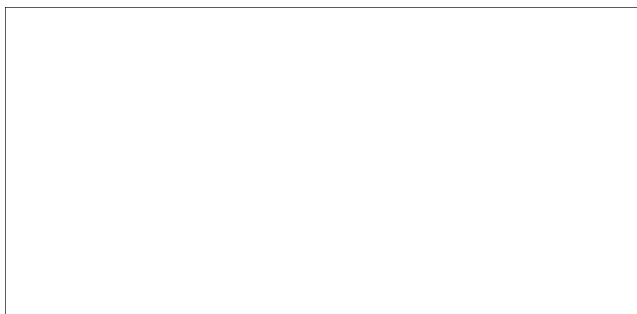

I hope everyone will enjoy a wonderful Easter! Even though some people believe that Easter is only celebrated on Easter Sunday, the season of Easter continues until the feast of Pentecost in June.

We take the opportunity these couple of months to give thanks to God for the gift of his Son, Jesus and realize how important our faith is in this world we live in. As we say thank you to our Lord for the gifts we have received, I just would like at this time to offer a Thank You for those who have given so much to our community these past few weeks.

Thank You to...

1. Our priests Fr. Bob Rohrich, Fr. Tom Hoffman, Fr. Lou Zake, Fr. Richard Shannon and our deacons Terry McGuire and Dan Rittenhouse who have assisted us with our liturgies during Lent, Holy Week and Easter.
2. Linda O Connor and Kevin Cody for leading those in Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults and Children's Initiation Process. The adults and children involved in the programs received the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil.
3. Don Betley, Sharon Kostes, Paul Malak, Terese Turner and the many volunteers for their hard work in preparing our church environment for the Lenten season, Holy Week and the Easter celebrations.
4. Our Parish Choir Director, Martorano, our St. Alphonus Choir members and musicians for their beautiful music and song.
5. Our Lectors, Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers for making the celebrations of Holy Week and Easter such marvelous and blessed events.

I think we all can agree that it is through these wonderful people and their dedication to our community that St. Alphonus such a special place to worship and celebrate our faith!

Welcome Guests and Visitors. We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this we believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

Most of us find ourselves remembering a mixture of both good and bad times. We are able to call up the blessing of those times when we lie back on the grass, hands held high, gazing at clouds and dreaming of how they shape themselves into silhouettes of what we've known and loved, a scrapbook of images dear to us. We hang on to such times.

But other memories come along as well, clouds drearier if not also stormier. Adolescence, maybe it can still ring a copper penny. Or the growing relationship we once had with a parent still limp from it, a bruised or broken spirit that never healed the way it should have. Or the team that comes from never having made the team, not the basketball team or love's team or even life's team, yet you sit in the wrong bus when everyone left for the game, ever after we gaze through the window at all the other buses and wonder who never waves back.

Mercifully life moves on. And if we're blessed, it moves on to goodnesses of other sorts. Yet not without the scars of those ways our flesh has of remembering. In some ways they're buoys that mark the deep-water channel in the river of life, markers for safe sailing as well as for rocky beds that rip us open.

So we remember the wounds, which is what Thomas said they were. They also marked the real Jesus. He knew that if the wounds into which he would put his own were real, so would Jesus be, and so also the demise of death. For Thomas it was the wounds that proved the resurrection and so moved him into faith.

Living God's Word

*We all struggle with believing. We all doubt; it is the essence of faith.
The difference is in where we look for renewed strength and reaffirmed faith.
For some the thermometer or measuring stick is the calm of life.
For others it is in our wounded helplessness that we come to faith simply because we recognize that the new life that comes is not our doing.*

JOINING THE COMPANY OF BELIEVERS

What will help you to believe? Today's readings tell of faith and doubt. They offer stories recorded to help us believe, as the passage from John's Gospel (20:31) remarks today. There is an urgency about this. On this Second Sunday of Easter we are challenged to join the company of believers: countless men and women who witnessed the power of the apostles' faith.

There is no doubt that this power comes from Jesus Christ. The second reading, from the book of Revelation, reports a mystical vision of the Son of Man, who proclaims, "Once I was dead, but now I am alive" (Revelation 1:18). The Gospel gathers everyone but Thomas to see the Risen and receive the Holy Spirit from him. Like Thomas, we who have come along must have faith so that we can have life.

NO RE SESSIONS THIS WEEK

LITTLE TYKES FOR CHRIST THIS WEEK

Our preschool and kindergarten-aged children and their parents will have their April session, and final session of the year, this Wednesday at 6:15pm in the Church Hall.

EASTER EGG HUNT WAS EGGS-CITING!

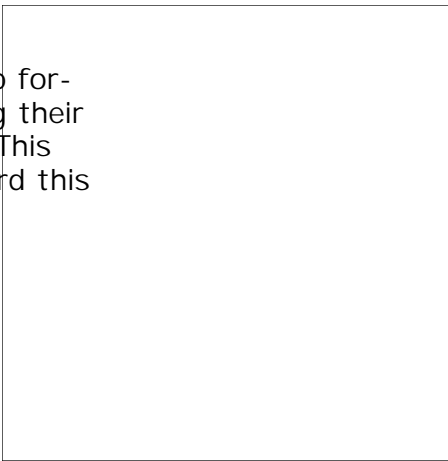

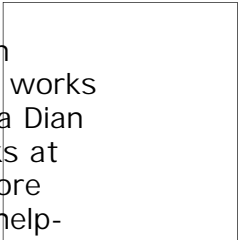

After having fun with a craft and hearing the Easter story with the aid of key symbols of the story discovered in Easter eggs, the hunt was on under blue skies! The Hamilton family did a great job of hiding the eggs for kids and parents to find. We thank Candy & Keith for facilitating this annual event.

MEET A NEW CATECHIST

We are so grateful for those parishioners who step forward to answer the call to assist parents in raising their children in the faith by joining our catechist team. This series introduces those people who stepped forward this year.

Terri Riordan travels from St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School on Monday afternoons, where she works in the office, to assist with Lisa Dian with our 3rd Grade class. She looks at this ministry as a way to be more involved with our parish while helping children to learn about their faith. Terri enjoys deepening her faith alongside the children. A good teacher is always open to learning.

WELCOME
MAX &
SELIN!

We welcomed 2 of the children to our Children's Initiation Process as members of the Church through the celebration of the sacrament of Baptism at the Easter Vigil.

Have a Blessed Easter season!

5th Grade Presents - The Last Supper

Younger students enjoyed watching the reenactment of The Last Supper portrayed by the 5th grade students. It is a tremendous blessing for students to share this story in their classrooms and then be able to have their own live version of the story.

Junior High Students Enjoy a Seder Meal

Exploring and learning the history of traditions of our ancestors has become an annual event at St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School. The feast is one of redemption and liberation, the memorial of the Israelites' escape from their bondage in Egypt. There are specific traditional foods served such as hard boiled eggs, matzo bread, wine (in our case apple juice) as well as different elements of prayer and reflection. The Christian observance of this ritual reminds us to celebrate the tradition of Christ's last supper and our heritage.

St. Vincent Ferrer

Jubilee Year of Mercy
April 3, 2016
Second Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy

Last year on this Sunday, Pope Francis declared this year a Jubilee Year of Mercy. Saint John Paul II named the Second Sunday of Easter Sunday of Divine Mercy in response to Saint Faustina's Divine Mercy devotion, which offered spiritual comfort to hearts worldwide. But Francis challenges us to make that comfort receive a gift we gladly share: We are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us. The clearest expression of merciful love, says Francis, is pardoning others. At times how hard it seems to forgive! he acknowledges. And yet pardon is the instrument placed into our fragile hands to attain serenity of heart (Misericordiae Vultus, 9). The necessary condition for living joyfully? To let go of anger, wrath, violence, and revenge. May Divine Mercy Sunday in this Jubilee Year of Mercy remind us that Jesus made mercy our life ideal and a criterion for our faith's credibility: Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy (Matthew 5:7).

What is it?

It refers to the practice of children leaving the Sunday assembly just before the Liturgy of the Word and to gather elsewhere to celebrate a separate Liturgy of the Word that is more appropriate to their level of understanding.

When & Where? It will take place during the 11 a.m.

Mass on Sunday, April 10. Children will be called forward following the Opening Prayer to process out of the worship space to the Church Hall in the lower level of the church. They will return just prior to the Presentation of the Gifts.

Who? Children in grades K-4. Children younger than this are generally unable to participate consciously and actively in liturgical celebrations. It is not a child-minding event.

Why? To help make the Mass more meaningful for children; to gradually lead them to full, conscious and active participation in the Sunday liturgical assembly.

If you are interested in assisting with this new ministry, contact Patrice Loisi (630-410-8475) or Candy Hamilton (630-243-7704).

ST. PATRICK'S SPRED GROUP AGES 6-10 – INFORMATIONAL MEETING

St. Patrick's SPRED group for ages 6-10 will be holding an informational meeting on Thursday, April 7, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. The meeting will take place in the ministry building located on Cass Street adjacent to St. Patrick's Church (200 East Illinois Street, Lemont, Illinois).

SPRED is a ministry program designed to meet the spiritual needs of persons with developmental and intellectual challenges from ages 6 and up. Any families who may benefit from this program are welcome to attend the meeting and learn what the SPRED program has to offer.

Information will also be provided to individuals who might be interested in working with the SPRED staff.

Working as a volunteer with SPRED can be very rewarding and all materials and training are provided by the program. Anyone 21 years or older may volunteer with SPRED and no experience is required.

We cordially invite you to join us at the meeting on Thursday, April 7, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. No registration is required and you may contact St. Patrick's Parish office at 630-257-6134 with any questions.

The Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass will be held on Sunday, September 18th, at 2:45 pm at Holy Name Cathedral, 735 North State Street, Chicago.

Couples married in 1966 interested in attending this celebration should contact the Parish Office at 630-257-2414 by June 1st to register.

For further information, call the Marriage and Family Ministries Office at 312-534-8351 or visit the web-site www.marriageandfamilyministries.org

Thank you for your continued support of our local food pantry. As part of a service project, the St. Al's Women's Club will be featuring a product of the month. This item will be a special request from the pantry for an item that is needed most. April we will collect canned meats such as chicken, tuna, ham or beef stew. Any item you are able to give is gratefully accepted. The staples you provide are also necessary.

Your kindness and generosity are very much appreciated.
