From Father Brian's Desk

Even though the weather seems more like the end of winter, there are signs around us that we are beginning the season of Spring. For example, the baseball season has begun, the Masters Golf Tournament takes place this weekend and our First Communion celebration is only two weeks away! Now, if the weather will finally cooperate, we can enjoy the next few months of sunshine!

Pack the Place at Gelsosomo's

Our monthly "Pack the Place" at Gelsosomo's will take place this Monday, April 11th from 5:00 – 9:00 p.m. 50% of sales on that evening will go to our St. Alphonus/St. Patrick School. Please join us to enjoy a delicious meal and show your support to our school!

SPRED Mass

Last Sunday, April 3rd, members of our SPRED Program (Religious Education for those with Special Needs) celebrated with us at our 9:00 a.m. Mass. They were involved in Altar Serving, offering a visual presentation of the Readings and preparing the Altar for the blessing of the gifts.

I believe everyone who was present really enjoyed the experience and I think it is one of the most inspiring events that our parish offers. A special thank you goes to our SPRED catechists and friends for their dedication and hard work in making every SPRED session very special!

"Renew My Church" Parishioner Survey

Archbishop Cupich presented his "Renew My Church" initiative in January 2016 in order to revitalize parish communities. He is asking for our opinions as the Archdiocese of Chicago begins its next phase of this program. Please take some time to respond to a survey at www.archchicago.org/renew. There are also paper copies of this survey in the back of church.

Liturgy Notes

I would like to remind everyone of the opportunity to present the gifts of the bread and wine at our liturgies. If you are attending a specific Mass and want to present the gifts, please sign up at our Parish Office or check with the Ushers before Mass begins.

We also have openings in our Mass book if you would like to offer a Mass Intention for an anniversary or for a loved one who is sick or deceased. Please call Roseann at our Parish Office at (630) 257-2414.

Welcome Guests and Visitors! We re so glad that you re here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this we have that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

“Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend.”

Reflecting on God's Word

When you compare the apostles before and after Jesus' death, you can see that not only did something special happen at Jesus' resurrection, but a wonderful change took place in the apostles as well. Up until the death of Jesus, the apostles did not come off very well. When the chips were down, they ran.

But after the Lord has risen and appeared to them, we get a very different picture. The Acts of the Apostles Luke gives us the most detailed description of what went on. The Holy Spirit descended upon this little community praying in the upper room.

The most obvious gift was courage, a word that has the same meaning as the word "heart." They were given a new heart. The Holy Spirit breathed new life into them and gave them a heart that was not afraid. They were given the fire of the Holy Spirit, and so they went to the heart of their city, and there they preached and taught about Jesus, witnessing as the Messiah, the Holy and Righteous One, the Author of Life.

They performed many signs and wonders (Acts 5:12) and casting out unclean spirits. There they were arrested and taken to prison and beaten, only to be arrested again. Through all this they were joyful.

The philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche is remembered for saying perhaps he would believe in our redeemer if we Christians looked a little more redeemed. Do you?

Living God's Word

We pray that we may grow in courage so that we can willingly and joyfully witness to the Lord, that we may be like Peter and the other apostles who followed Christ through suffering to glory, who were able to respond more than once to his call, "Follow me."

“Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing.”

Revelation 5:12

REDEMPTION

Do you remember Peter on the night Jesus was arrested? He claimed he had heard of Jesus. Today we are called to join Peter in testifying to the name of Jesus. He does in the first reading, and in the Gospel passage. The powerful imagery of John's vision in the second reading of the book of Revelation shows us the company we keep when we have faith in the name of Jesus. We join all living creatures, countless in number, from heaven, earth, under the earth, in the sea, and in every part of the universe (Revelation 5:11, 13). The dignity and majesty described in each reading are in stark contrast to the and pitiful image of Peter and the other apostles at the time of Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion. What a relief that we can all be redeemed so completely!

Jubilee Year of Mercy
April 10, 2016
Third Sunday of Easter

How appropriate today's Gospel for this Year of Mercy, both because of the breakfast Jesus provides (charcoal fire with fish on it and bread) and the number of fish in Peter's net (one hundred fifty-three) (John 21:11-12). Of the fish, Saint Augustine suggests that the roasted fish is the suffering Christ. Saint Gregory the Great adds that Christ lowered himself to swim in the water of our humanity; to be caught in the net of our death; to be roasted in his Passion on the fire of suffering. Saint Jerome claims that the hundred fifty-three represents the full number of known species of fish, signifying that the Church's net has room for all our widely diverse humanity, securing our unity-in-diversity in the hands of Peter and his successors. Having received God's mercy as the beating heart of the Gospel, may the Church we pattern [our] behavior after the Son of God who went out to everyone without exception (Misericordiae Vultus, 12).
