Tri-Parish Weekday Morning Mass

In keeping with the tradition that began a few years ago, the Catholic Communities of St. Alphonus, Ss. Cyril & Methodius and St. Patrick will move to Tri-Parish Weekday Morning Mass schedule starting Wednesday, June 1st and concluding August 3rd. One parish will serve as the host parish for the 7:30 a.m. Morning Mass (Monday - Saturday). The Mass intentions will be collected from each parish celebrated together by the priest assigned to that specific Mass.

St. Alphonus Church will host the first month of the Tri-Parish Weekday Masses in the church beginning Wednesday, June 1st and concluding on Thursday, June 30th. From there the Tri-Parish Mass will travel to St. Patrick Church for the month of July and then move to Ss. Cyril and Methodius for the month of August. The complete schedule will continue to be posted in the bulletin for the next few weeks.

FR. BRIAN ARDAGH

Welcome Guests and Visitors. We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. We believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

Forming a community is never easy. This is true whether the community is made up of family members, citizens, or believers. Diversity can both enrich and divide. Jewish Christians soon joined by Gentile believers. The church in Jerusalem was joined by the church in Antioch. While the Gentile Christians questioned whether they had to accept all the Jewish traditions and customs, Jewish Christians feared they would lose what had given them their identity.

Today's reading from Acts witnesses to the role of the Holy Spirit in helping to navigate a way through these sensitive issues. The leaders of the church in Jerusalem send the church in Antioch, proclaiming that the decision they reached came not just from human wisdom, but from working with the Holy Spirit.

Such testimony to the role of the Holy Spirit is in the Gospel of John. At the Last Supper, Jesus tells his disciples that the Holy Spirit will come from the Father and teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you (John 14:26). Because of this, you can have confidence that God will not abandon us. Indeed, the Spirit comes to dwell with those faithful to Jesus' word.

When we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, we call on the Holy Spirit to open our minds to Jesus' word and to transform bread and wine so that we become more fully the body and the living temple of the Holy Spirit in the world.

Living God's Word

*We pray that God will continue to send the Holy Spirit so that we might retain what is life-giving from the past and be open to any new initiatives that our loving God may offer in days ahead.
We pray that our community may see in diversity a gift that can enrich.*

Psalm 67:6

THE GIFT OF PEACE

We are offered another vision in today's reading, a vision of the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God (Revelation 21:10). Read between lines describing the radiant city, and what the greatest beauty revealed is the beauty of perfect symmetry and order, a city founded on the faith of the two of Israel and the Twelve Apostles, lit only by the glory of God.

The first reading and the Gospel are linked in their idealized description of the New Jerusalem. In both we read of distress and suffering countered by the gift of peace. [M]y peace I give to you, Jesus said to his disciples at the Last Supper (John 14:27). In keeping with that gift, the apostles, in the reading from Acts, decide not to disturb the peace of the believers. The undue burden of circumstance will not be imposed on them.

WHAT OUR CATECHISTS LIKED (Part 1)

We are grateful for the adults and teens who volunteer to help our young people learn more about the Catholic faith and their call to be disciples of Christ. We asked them what they liked about the RE Program. Here are some of the responses

- The opportunity for me to be involved in the community.
- Having a core catechist to guide us. I liked the kids, and the parents were pretty supportive.
- Meeting/talking with the other catechists who are volunteering their time.
- The format being similar from year-to-year, making repeat teaching easier.
- I really like the Matthew Kelly DVD presentations in 8th Grade. They helped me take a step forward as a catechist.
- My co-catechist, the Catechist Guide, the Director and his awesome Admin. Assistant.
- Being able to have discussions with the students and hear their input on our faith.

Future Blue Man

Art is always an exciting time at St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School. Kindergarten student Evan was so excited about painting and making hand prints he decided to paint his entire hand blue. Amazingly, he did not get any paint on his white shirt, the walls, or any other student! When asked why he painted his hand blue, Evan responded, "I wanted to see what it felt like to be blue."

What are our learners and leaders doing today?

Oreo Stacking Data Collection

The third grade is currently working on O.R.E.O. Project 2016 to practice important data collection and analysis skills. Students make predictions, complete stacking trials with cookies, and record data on both an individual data and class data sheets. In addition, they will use this data in math problems by working with nutritional analysis and graphs.

Lego Assembly

Students enjoyed a special Lego Assembly on April 21. Primary grade students created structures, elementary students created pull-back cars, and the junior high students created robot engineered lego cars. With thousands of legos to choose from, every child from preschool to 8th grade was thoroughly engaged.

Spring 2016

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On Mother's Day, each of us will have an opportunity to join in the Church's sacred mission of charity through our ~~own~~ Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection. Funds raised from the collection will be used to help struggling families and individuals living right in our own communities.

With 150 programs at 164 locations throughout Cook County, Catholic Charities annually serves more than one million poor and vulnerable people of all ages, religions and economic backgrounds. Catholic Charities helps people overcome the challenges of poverty, hunger, homelessness, joblessness, mental illness, abuse. Low-income families, at-risk children, courageous veterans, and vulnerable seniors rely on Catholic Charities for clothing, shelter, and a host of other services.

Supporting the extraordinary work of Catholic Charities takes on special significance during this Jubilee Year of Mercy. By designating the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has provided us a graced opportunity to appreciate more deeply how the mercy of God shapes our lives and, at the same time, how we can bring that mercy to others through our own actions and the way we live our lives. Catholic Charities exemplifies how we are to translate mercy and compassion to our brothers and sisters who are facing tremendous difficulties.

Mother's Day is the one day set aside for Catholic Charities to request the financial support of each of our parishes. Please show your support for the great mercy of the Church by contributing to Catholic Charities' Mother's Day second collection, or make your donations directly to Catholic Charities at 721 N. LaSalle St., Chicago, IL 60610. www.catholiccharities.net/donate is a particularly important time for us to give generously, as Catholic Charities must contend with the repercussions of the Illinois state budget crisis, which has placed tremendous financial strain on their ability to serve the poor and vulnerable.

During this Jubilee Year, let us take up the Pope's challenge to bring the transformative power of God's infinite mercy into our world. Working together, we can rise to the needs and sisters in need, providing compassion and concrete support to propel them to a new life filled with dignity. Many thanks for considering a gift to Catholic Charities. May God bless you and your families.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago

JUBILEE OF MERCY REJOICE

When the mercy of God takes hold of our lives and finds us, we have every reason to rejoice. Even more, God rejoices that his beloved sons and daughters, who were lost, now belong to him and him alone once again. "There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance." (Luke 15:7)
