Important Items

1. Please remember Deacon Dan Rittenhouse and his wife, Gisela, in your prayers. Dan's father, Francis Rittenhouse, passed away this week in Minnesota at the age of 93. The funeral services were held in Minnesota, so if you would like to offer a Mass Intention or a note of support, please drop it at the Parish Office.
2. This weekend, May 14th & 15th, we are offering a blessing at our Masses for all school athletes. It is a great time to celebrate their determination and hard work in training and their involvement in their respective sports.
3. Please read the article in this weekend's bulletin regards Archbishop Cupich's "Renew My Church" Program. It contains some FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions) about the program and what it means for the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Tri-Parish Weekday Morning Mass

In keeping with the tradition that began a few years ago, the Catholic Communities of St. Alphonsus, Ss. Cyril & Methodius and St. Patrick will move to a Tri-Parish Weekday Morning Mass schedule starting Wednesday, June 1st and concluding on August 31st. One parish will serve as the "host parish" for the 7:30 a.m. Morning Mass (Monday – Saturday).

St. Alphonsus Church will host the first month of the Tri-Parish Weekday Masses in the church beginning on Wednesday, June 1st and concluding on Thursday, June 30th. The complete summer Mass schedule will continue to be posted in the bulletin for the next few weeks.

Saturday Mass Time

In January, we made a decision to change the Saturday Mass time from 5:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. for the winter and early spring months to allow parishioners a little more daylight when traveling to church. Many people have remarked how they have really enjoyed this time change.

If you recall when the announcement was made at the beginning of the year, I mentioned that when summer arrives, we will have to return to the original Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass time for a few months. Why? Well, we have a number of Saturday afternoon weddings in the summer and fall months and they won't conclude until 3:00/3:15 p.m. at the very earliest.

If a wedding was delayed for any reason, it would be very difficult to coordinate the wedding party, their families and the weekend Mass congregation in the church. Of course, the parking situation would be extremely challenging.

That being said, on Saturday, July 2nd, we will return to celebrating Mass at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday evenings. That will allow ample time for weddings to take place and preparing for Saturday Mass. Confessions will take place at 4:00 p.m.

The good news -- when Daylight Saving Time ends on the weekend of November 5th & 6th, we will return to celebrating Saturday Mass at 4:00 p.m..

FR. BRIAN ARDAGH

Welcome Guests and Visitors . . . We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this way, we believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

In the Middle Ages, when science seemed to be stepsister to the arts, people thought that phlogiston was what made something burnable. The more phlogiston, the more readily flammable was the way they understood physics' inner workings. It explained why rocks did not burn and why straw readily did.

Though phlogiston has long been shelved, its theory is not so far removed from how the Spirit of God burns in our lives, nor is it far from the gifts that God's Spirit sets aflame in us. If some effort of ours glows with light and heat, it may be a sign of much Spirit, sort of like phlogiston. On the other hand, if in our effort to shine there's not even a spark, it's quite likely that that is not where the Spirit has settled into us. It might be better to pay attention then to some other aspect of life.

The struggle is to make sure that our imagined passion and where the Spirit of God wants us to be are one and the same so that the former does not cause us to stray from the latter. How does anyone know if they are where they should be? St. Paul says that the Spirit gives each of us our own dose of divine giftedness, our own spark with which to shine, but it's not given to us for our own glory or fun or feel-good self-image but for the good of others, for the community, for building up life. John's Gospel suggests one other such test—whether or not we're at peace. That, too, is the Spirit's gift.

Living God's Word

*As we go through life, we need to find out where the Spirit wants us to be.
Often, however, it's not the same as where we would like to be, or think we should be.
It may be that at such times we're wrestling with the very Spirit of God.*

In one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.

— 1 Corinthians 12:13a

THE FULLNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The church wakes up to an amazing message this morning. Look around and see who has been called. Listen to the voices of those who proclaim Jesus is Lord. You'll find no race of people left out; you'll find no language on earth unfit to proclaim the glory of God. We call Pentecost Sunday the "birthday of the church." In many ways, the church is still being born. Only when we all know the peace Jesus offered in today's Gospel will we really know the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

St. Paul assures us in today's second reading that "all of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit." When we look around us in the church we should see everyone. But we don't. Not yet. What is holding us back from fully embracing the one Body of Christ? When will we see our differences as manifestations of the same Holy Spirit?

- Family support & involvement was great!
- The opportunity it gives to be involved in the community.
- The books were easy for children to understand.
- The Catechist Guides had good ideas for activities.

1st Grade Chicks

First graders are celebrating the wonder of life as they witnessed their eggs hatch into chicks. They have spent time naming them, feeding them, holding them, and loving and nurturing them.

With the chicks came some really silly jokes. Why did the Easter egg hide? He was a little chicken!

Mother's Day Tea

Mother's Day Tea

On Friday, May 6, Kindergarten students took time to honor their mothers in a special way. With the help of Mrs. Jenkins, students hosted the Annual Mother's Tea. They created placemats, flowers, and a very special candle gift. In addition they performed specially prepared entertainment, served their mom treats, and created a keepsake DVD for their mothers with the help of technology teacher Mrs. Yakes. The DVD captured their videotaped thoughts about their mothers and had a home-made CD jacket case.

Ascension Prayer Service

Students celebrated a special prayer service in honor of the Ascension of Our Lord on Friday, May 6. The mass was led by the Kindergarten students with assistance from their 8th grade buddies.

The week before the prayer service, Kindergarten students learned what happened when Jesus ascended into heaven with stories and a special art project. Students enjoyed sharing the story with their buddies and learned how to lead prayer with their help.

Jubilee of Mercy Pentecost: May 14-15

An Invitation to join Archbishop Cupich in renewing the Archdiocese of Chicago

As Pope Francis recently remarked, we are living not only in an era of change but a change of era. This is a time to dream big. That is why we have launched Renew My Church, a pastoral planning process designed to bring those dreams to life and to strengthen the vitality of our parishes for generations to come. Just as the Holy Spirit filled the disciples at the first Pentecost and sent them on mission, the Holy Spirit is with us today, calling us to a new Pentecost to bring the Good News of Jesus Christ in a fresh way to the world. This work belongs to every parish and every Catholic across the Archdiocese.

On this Pentecost day, Archbishop Cupich is inviting us to join him in making real this dream of vibrant parishes that live out the Gospel and share the love of Christ in word and deed. It will take a steady faith – a faith that is imaginative, that trusts that Christ is leading us and empowering us to make bold decisions that will shape the Church for generations to come.

At the heart of this process is the demand to read the signs of the times and discern where Christ is calling us to fulfill his mission. There are challenges: decreasing Mass attendance; treasured church buildings in need of repair, declining numbers of priests, religious, deacons, and lay ministers, as many move towards retirement.

Addressing this situation will require prayer, humility, hard work, creativity, tough choices, and new sacrifices. It is true that by the time this consultative process is complete, we will mourn together the loss of some parishes. But that will not be the final word. By having the boldness to leave behind familiar ways of doing things, we can seize the moment as one not simply of loss, but rather of renewal.

Renewal comes from placing Christ at the center of the community and accompanying each other on this journey toward missionary discipleship. Rooted in Christ and strengthened by sacramental grace and the bonds of fellowship, the Church in Chicago will grow joyfully and fruitfully in response to Christ's call to "Renew My Church." Therefore, Renew My Church will have at its core a strong focus on mission. The goal will be to ensure that local parishes have the support they need to strengthen their faith communities and live out our missionary call in ever more vibrant ways.

Why is this process called Renew My Church?

As St. Francis of Assisi was praying in the Church of San Damiano, he heard Christ speak to him: "Go, repair my Church." Eventually St. Francis realized that Christ was calling him to renew the Church - not only as a physical structure, but as the whole people of God. The dying and rising of Christ continue to take place in every age in the dying and rising of the Church. We must take up the mission of proclaiming Christ as a Church whose community is united and whose focus is on the renewal that comes through the Resurrection.

What will happen next? When will my parish be affected?

All parishes across the archdiocese will be part of “groupings” for pastoral planning. Within a grouping, parishes will come together to gather information and evaluate options for the pastoral needs of the local area. They will all have a say.

Admittedly, the end result of this planning will differ according to the mission priorities, needs, and realities of the Church in that area. The goal is to have a vibrant Catholic presence that reflects responsible stewardship of our collective resources: the gifts of lay people, deacons, religious, and lay ecclesial ministers, our priest personnel, finances, and buildings. For some groupings, the results will include changes to parish configurations, including potentially fewer parishes. For other groupings, parish configurations may not change, but parishes will be expected to plan for enhanced collaboration with one another, and to identify how they may further support parishes in other areas of the archdiocese.

We will begin this fall with a “pilot” program involving a small number of groupings and anticipate we will refine the Renew My Church grouping planning process based on learnings from these pilots. Subsequent groupings will then enter into a focused planning effort over the course of the next two to three years.

Who will make decisions?

Representatives from each parish will form a Grouping Planning Committee to gather information and evaluate options for the pastoral needs of the local area. The Grouping Planning Committee will make preliminary recommendations to an Archdiocesan Planning Commission comprised of leaders who represent the diverse backgrounds, skills, and experiences of Church that mark the Archdiocese. The Archdiocesan Planning Commission will review the recommendations. If the preliminary recommendations are accepted, they will be forwarded to Archbishop Cupich for consultation with the Archdiocesan Presbyteral Council. After consulting with the Presbyteral Council, Archbishop Cupich will make the final decisions.

What is expected of me as a Catholic in the Archdiocese of Chicago?

Remain hopeful and open to ways to share, contribute, and collaborate throughout the process of Renew My Church. Archbishop Cupich has invited us to pray for wisdom, discernment, and courage as we begin pastoral planning through Renew My Church. Please use the prayer card available at your parish beginning on Pentecost to pray at home with your families, at parish meetings, and in other community groups. We will continue to recite this prayer during Mass periodically across the Archdiocese.

When will we know the results of the survey?

Thank you to the more than 30,000 Catholics who responded to the recent online survey, and the thousands who mailed in a response via paper copy. Archdiocesan staff is in process of inputting paper responses. Initial results will be shared this summer.

A final word

This will be hard work. But, what in life worth doing does not involve hard work? The immigrants who built our churches, schools, hospitals and charitable agencies were not daunted by the prospect of hard work. Neither should we be daunted, as we begin this new springtime for the Church, this new Pentecost, this change of era.

JUBILEE OF MERCY
PROCLAIM

The mission of the Church—and therefore of everyone in the Church—is to proclaim the mercy of God to the entire world. Jesus entrusts this mission to his disciples as he ascends to heaven. “Repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.” (Luke 24:47)
