From Father Brian's Desk

A number of people have mentioned to me that the influence of the media on our society is growing every year. Some people enjoy receiving the "Breaking News" every minute and others believe that we are getting bombarded with too much information.

While I usually make it a point to watch the evening news, it bothers me that the priority of news items has made a drastic change in the last few years. For example, I have noticed that there were countless stories about N.F.L. Quarterback Colin Kaepernick refusing to stand for the Star Spangled Banner.

However, the senseless murder of Sister Paula Merrill and Sister Margaret Held in Mississippi was only mentioned for a couple of days. These kind and generous women were dedicated to serving the poor and needy, yet there was hardly any mention of their story after last weekend.

I find it sad that a celebrity (whether it may be a TV or movie star, a musician or an athlete) can receive so much attention, but those who are focused on helping the poor are passed over by the news outlets. However, if we have learned anything from Sister Paula and Sister Margaret's inspiration, we can't fall into despair. Christ calls us to continue working on the Gospel message of serving others in a generous and kind way, like Sister Paula and Sister Margaret. By doing so, we truly share the important news of the day...

Labor Day Celebration

On this Labor Day weekend, we should take the time to reflect on what this national holiday means to our country. One writer said, "Labor Day celebrates a yearly national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity and well-being of our country."

Labor Day originated in 1882 in New York City under the direction of the Knights of Labor. Labor Day has come to be celebrated by most Americans as the symbolic end of the summer. For many years, the Tuesday after Labor Day was the first day of the school year.

Labor Day also gives us a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the Catholic Church's social teaching on labor and the working class. Nearly every pope since Pope Leo XIII has issued teachings on the subject of the dignity of the human person, especially in regards to labor. Pope Francis has often spoke about human dignity and what we need to do as Christians and Catholics to make sure it is present in our world. Let us continue to pray for workers around the world and hopefully we can witness an improvement in working conditions and fair wages.

I would like to personally thank everyone who makes St. Alphonsus Parish community a wonderful place to worship. I would like to thank the St. Alphonsus Parish Staff, the priests who assist us at the weekend liturgies, the liturgical ministers and the countless volunteers who help us in so many ways. Thank you for all that you do!

School Fundraiser

St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School will hold a "Pack the Place" fundraiser on Monday, Sept. 12th at Gelsosomo's Pizza (206 Main St, Lemont, IL) from 5:00 -10:00 p.m.. Gelsosomo's Pizzeria will donate 50% of all dine-in food orders to St. Alphonsus/St. Patrick School. Come enjoy a wonderful meal and support our school!

Fr. Brian Ardagh

Welcome Guests and Visitors . . . We're so glad that you're here and invite you to join us in thanksgiving for God's action in our lives. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. In this way, we believe that the Church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world.

"Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult (the Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend."

Reflecting on God's Word

It's said that we never really grow up until both of our parents have died. I suspect that most who have had to walk that path recognize some truth there. So when the Gospel advises us to turn our back on father and mother and family and even on ourselves—maybe it's not about rejecting but about becoming able to live the gospel more maturely, about releasing our grip on the past and growing up. Maybe letting go of childish things is the cost and also the wisdom of the God who waits patiently for us.

One of life's tasks, it seems, is to learn the balancing act between loving without possessiveness and relinquishing without indifference or abandonment. In truth, perhaps we never really learn to balance the two. We mostly lean in the direction opposite where we are at the time, until we suspect we may have leaned too far and switch directions. It's a wisdom we come to that's worthwhile for parenting but also for marriage and one's profession and growing old and just about everything else that life serves up.

This balancing is also at the heart of faith and discipleship. It's how we come to recognize the hand of God in our lives, by living in such a way that God has the freedom to rearrange the pieces and so bring us to fuller life. It's the wisdom that teaches us how to be a disciple but also the sort of discipleship that brings us to wisdom. It's also the light shining forth in today's reading from the book of Wisdom.

Living God's Word

"Renounce your possessions," the Gospel insists (Luke 14:33). We can't say that we always have. Rather, it seems that we've often done more accumulating than renouncing. And yet each accumulation may have made room for one more way of being made new as the disciples we all are called to become.

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.

— Psalm 90:14

INVITED

The Good News is that we have all been invited—invited to the Kingdom, invited to be disciples. It's a life-changing invitation, and like so many other such invitations, it requires a great deal of deliberation and discernment. Whether we choose marriage, ordination, single life, or community life, we know the serious planning and consideration that accompany these profound decisions. Like the tower-builder in the Gospel, we have weighed both the monetary and emotional cost. We have pondered and planned our lives in the direction to which we believe God has called us. And while we pray for guidance and acceptance of God's will, we often fail to understand so much. Like Solomon, we turn to God for wisdom and counsel in our life-changing decisions.

We will even offer two 2nd Grade classes on Wednesday evenings to accommodate the large number of requests for that grade level. Thank you for your patience and consideration.

A CHILD IN NEED.

Several people came along and all saw the child with the sign.

She heard them say, "I can't teach you, I have 5 children... too much work to do and not enough time." "I can't teach you either, I have no children and I don't know how to deal with you... Anyway, isn't that someone else's job?" "I don't know how to teach and I have no experience. But, maybe next year I'll give it a try." Then she saw someone carrying a toddler in one arm and a stack of books in the other, went to the child and said: "I'm awfully busy and I'm not a teacher. I have my hands full BUT since you need me, I'll try to teach you."

We are in need of catechists for the following classes...

Track A (Sunday 8:45-10:15am): 4th, 5th, 6th

Track C (Wednesday 6:00 – 7:30pm): 5th, 6th, 7th

If you feel called to join us on our 2016-17 journey by volunteering your time and talents, or would like more information regarding this all important ministry, please contact us by phone or e-mail.

Collaborative Learning Center

Pictured to the right, the 8th grade students pose in our new Collaborative Learning Center (CLC). The CLC was designed to facilitate blended learning in which students learn through a mix of technology both online/offline, traditional face-to-face instruction, and independent and collaborative activities with some element of student control over time, place, and pace. Below students work together in the CLC.

We,
 the eighth-grade class of 2017,
 pledge to look for God in other people and serve our school with love.

We will look after the younger students in our school.
 We will accept guidance from our teachers and parents.
 We will ask the Holy Spirit for guidance when we have troubles or questions.

We promise to work hard in everything we do.
 We pledge to live out the CELTIC mission by our example of faith, love, peace, and charity.

Bless the class of 2017

PLEASE NOTE:

Parish offices will be closed Monday, September 5th in observance of Labor Day. We will reopen Tuesday, September 6th

BAPTISM SEMINAR

Journey of Faith: Birth, Baptism, Belonging

If you are expecting a baby, family and friends have showered you with gifts and you have no doubt furnished and decorated a nursery. In the same way your Catholic community, through the sacrament of Baptism, welcomes and offers spiritual strength and encouragement as your child begins a life-long journey of faith.

Our Baptismal Preparation program, Journey of Faith: Birth, Baptism, Belonging, is a seminar that will help you better understand the sacrament of Baptism. The seminar can be taken while awaiting the birth of your child or shortly after the baby is born. The seminar will meet on a Saturday of alternate months from 9:00 am to Noon in the Religious Education Building. The Seminar dates for 2016 are: September 10th and November 12th. If you have not attended a baptismal preparation class at St. Alphonsus in the last three years you must participate in a Baptism seminar.

Call the Parish Office at 630-257-2414 to schedule the baptism seminar along with your baptismal date.

JUBILEE OF MERCY
SEEK

Sometimes our encounter with the mercy of God begins indirectly. We may be seeking something, just as Zacchaeus was seeking to see Jesus, perhaps only out of curiosity. In a turnaround, Jesus merciful glance seeks Zacchaeus. [Jesus] looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." (Luke 19:5)

Thank You FOR THE SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Bethany Lutheran Open Pantry is grateful to the parishioners of St. Alphonsus for their generous monetary gifts and donation of school supplies to provide for the children of Open Pantry through the annual school supply drive.

Your contribution allowed the children to begin the school year with new supplies and helped Open Pantry families with this school expense. Your gift ensures that a child served through the Open Pantry will be well prepared for the upcoming academic year.

With your kindness the car was filled to capacity and the team was able to assemble many school kits.

It is a blessing to have St. Alphonsus parishioners who are thoughtful and caring of fellow community residents.
