From Father Brian's Desk

As we enter the celebration of Christmas this weekend, let us pause to reflect on the Birth of Jesus Christ as the beginning of our Christian faith. I found a beautiful prayer from St. John XXIII that speaks of what the Messiah's birth should mean to us:

Put into the hearts of men and women this peace for which they sometimes seek so desperately and which you alone can give to them.

*Help them to know one another better,
and to live as brothers and sisters,
children of the same Father.
Reveal to them also your beauty, holiness and purity.*

*Awaken in their hearts
love and gratitude for your infinite goodness.
Join them all together in your love.
And give us your heavenly peace. Amen.*

Saint John XXIII

On behalf of the entire
St. Alphonsus Pastoral Staff, we would like to wish everyone
a very blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Living God's Word

*We live in between the coming of the Messiah and the final fulfillment of salvation.
 What are we to do in this between-time?
 How can we embrace the past, present, and future of God's passionate love for us?
 How can we both sing and bring joy to the world?*
