FIRST GRADE STUDENTS WELCOME BABY CHICKS

The little first grade mother hens and their chief Mother Hen, Mrs. Gottardo, have done it again. They have successfully watched over an incubator full of chick eggs while anxiously awaiting the hatching. The students vigilance did not go unrewarded and on the evening of May 8, the chicks began to hatch. Twenty peeping fuzzy little chicks have now joined the first grade students. All the student body enjoys this time of year and doesn't miss an opportunity to stop by and visit the new fuzzy feathered Celtic friends.
