May God, the Lord of mercy and compassion, protect all who are still in danger and bring safety to those who are missing.

May He care in a special way for those who were already homeless or without support and resources, before the disaster.

We pray in thanksgiving for the first responders who are risking their lives to save others at this very moment.

We include in our intentions the everyday heroes reaching out to help their neighbors in need, those who, like the Good Samaritan cannot walk by a person in need without offering their hand in aid. Amen.

Living God’s Word

We can pray that we have the strength to respond courageously to Jesus’ call to be willing to lose our life for his sake.
We ask to be able to discern in our daily lives the way we can “offer [our] bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, your spiritual worship.”

Be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.
— Romans 12:2

RCIA begins with a period of inquiry in the fall - a time to ask questions. The only requirement is a desire to explore one's relationship to God through the Catholic faith. No firm commitment to join the Church is needed at this time. One might wish to come for one of the following reasons:

- * I definitely want to become a Catholic.
- * I think I might want to become a Catholic.
- * I'm "just looking" - not sure at this time.
- * I don't want to join, but just want to know what Catholics believe.
- * I'm Catholic, but have had little or no contact with the Church.
